The American Baptist Educational Society met in annual session at Chicago yesterday. The point of chief interest and one which aroused great enthusiasm was the announcement that the society had raised the $460,000 necessary to supplement the $600,000 given by Mr. Rocketeller, of Cleveland, or a Baptist university in Chicago.

The Last Great Gathering.

The most impressive secondary thought tuggested by the exercises of to-day is the conviction borne in upon the minds of Confederates that the present is probably the last great gathering of their glorious clans from all parts of the South. There will doubtless be erected many monuments to individual heroes other "Private" John Allen, of Mississippi, who obtained leave of absence from the House for three days, stated in his request, that is to-day printed in the Congressional Beerd, that he asked leave for the purpose of attending the unveiling of the Lee statue at Richmond. When a mere boy, scarcely old enough to beable to bear arms, Mr. Allen left his home in Mississippi and fought in the Confederate service throughout the entire struggle. No man in Congress is better known, and as he is the most genial spirit among the statesmen "Private" Allen will be given a warm welcome at Virginia's capital, no doubt, for he will surely meet there many men who served with him in the war.

A favorable report was made in the Senate to-day on Senater Damel's bill providing for the erection of a post-office building at Fortress Monroe, Va., the cost of which is not to exceed $15,000.

The following fourth-class postmasters were appointed to-day: Virginia—Namie W. Mongure, Richland, Stafford county, rice G. D. Edmands, resigned. North Carolina—J. H. (Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

CHARLESTON, W. VA., May 28.—The CoalRiver Railroad Company, of which Senator Kenna is president and Senator Hearst, of California, is a large stockholder, has purchased about forty acres of land at St. Albans for terminal facilities, and will within sixty days begin work on the road up Coal river, to connect with the Chesapeake and Ohio at St. Albans. The Chesapeake and Ohio Company is said to have endorsed their bonds, which will insure their sale.
Work on the Chesapeake and Ohio shops
at the same place was commenced to-day.
